Text-analysis Markov chains describe the likeliness for one word to be followed by another, when provided with a source text. Effectively, a rudimentary simulation of language falls out of the other side, modeled on its source. If we trained the algorithm against love letters, we can imagine the word “you” is statistically likely to be followed by “have.”

You

You → Have

You Have → My

You Have My → Heart

etc.

The following poems are what happens when the algorithm has been trained against hundreds of thousands of Craigslist Missed Connections ads.

heavy water

you took chemistry between ten year french in love someone else.

we had sum thing that was-- i drove it and it was tumultuous but i want to be with a phd and don't help me cum join you

just always be taught maybe 25 years ago, love if i was bad so i didn't ask for total fox, and leave me at each breath and send me today

let me hope to get back hey, did some good as they go for stuff and the freeway to see a escape.. truth is what he sent you was very much.

you have a commune and never sell u to lose.

literally, i wanted to catch you everywhere. walmart, walking to fests, it's new and move on your initials bc i can't.

i sucked you about you so much impact on the same aisle looking for reading this, in the desk during the bar.

we were waiting for him to get together. let me hope to get back around 7:40 am.

i waved and know it's called over "here" this is all.

share a little paper

when we hoped not.....for the flames to have said had eye contact
I know, and never heard from the isle next to you left unsaid but now i'd like we share a little paper and blue t-shirt and fervent.

it makes things that i miss the one of cl.
i'd love you

you have the youthful ambition to see this girl that rawdogging strangers in each other then we looked at a novel to the one time to help u looked tired of course are doing.

it was flagged
just talked about ten and back, we looked at lettuce m4w4m4bernie

long shot but the memories are dating site in my only king.
but couldn't have been you told me and after new friend.
you lived on the bar!
how handsome,
doctors are men at the ideal plan to pretend or something. so much. :)

i'd love to know if you in sherman oaks! bernie!
it is absurd and i only i was probably straight on your rules, and you - w4m - i posted up like four sixwhere it seem.

blurry silhouette

cleared out to give you me but if we both work together beaches, malls, museums, movies, lounges, clubs, pool, drinking, quiet walks in the word you are obsessed with a meth head of your self check this this is from us bank

i was texting with the second half.
would wanna talk and i acted like to reply with my number, as i wish you were reading this on the drinking, never real and prepare for me, and almost assuredly blushed before the most beloved thing.

maybe one of folks on our friends, and i was nice!
you for me from tom in blurry silhouette, you are beautiful.
couldnt help you never exchanged a postal (zip) code.

outrageous you

your posting this earth.

i ask you see this, in town now that we known you reading a coffee, ended the southwest flight attendant this may have given up, it put some miracle.

i hope in my hand pulls it complicated things to meet for letting you next bus and black, what your parents weren't meant to see u from it.

i miss you see you outrageous you -- it was trying to chicago, and i thought it would have seen you did, in some oral fun person to do not do doing anything at all you again noble

this is keen.
this is "fisticuffs", if you are willing to sidesafety

isles at each other sidesafety is not identity

your heart & curly afro and others' lives and yes sir, are unanswered prayers

you just, gotta follow my "sweetheart", who i still do. maybe searching through my opinion matters is actually cause problems.

if you said your jacket, slim build, with two waist, white guy... your apartment was in person you stayed a sergeant.

he not ashamed or were you were thinking oliver queen blossoms blooming i had gotten your smiles that want to the heart.

today, i will be where you are unattracted to me after all i wish she feels like to somebody you said sluttery

they were asian with a snow day -- things from your personal talk.
tell you were essentially 3 years.....

and just grabbed my side while behind me is that why we're both a burgundy purse.

would love to know you're a glitch in a cocky

i was from work at the spa monday jan 3
train
had an amazing blowjob.

my shift - mt casino - 2nd floor after in the brain begins to hear your neck my hand
here is a line!

my heart and you said sluttery, certainly no games on so sexy.

missing toy

any help with a way until you are ok.
beautiful middle third daughter's toy.
i no man-whore either.
nothing since he sees.

the bar with someone, you a lot around 10:30-11am missing you

the familiar me in the familiar me, real girl in bath & asked if he has to be great. and smiled.

i reached out to your words in front yard.... i didn't chat a day that flows through your hand reaches you, to race and he feels like you and always wear.

even muster up with the building as much as your mind space and a connection you were a crazy site?

sexy as it was

you had a bit yesterday, but i know who you another man.
contact me when you talked for some reason you're going around in the moment.

you were twice my age - and support legislation that i still have to meet up again one night came out partying tonight and totally random and the occasional depth.

cute disheveled, sexy as it was but then we were uncomfortable hose and i saw a cute and what a strange thing over a puzzle, there with you.

i know you think your partner.

alvaro

(and damned before work.)

we didn't chat

a creepy guy in the wrong number, i remember.

need relaxation after the most amazingly wonderful smile,
was doubtful,
regretful because of him.

you were tall alvaro

you work for some sparkling eyes off guard and i'm from calgary.

i'm really finding myself for those who were walking from aurora, about, and without really wish i forgot what the vibe was you did

that was with wasted and finger me up, text 303
or name is all.

i hope i understand your hat, and guitar.

self respect

anthony anthony thought about you but i called me back.
drink it.
